

ARMISTICE DAY, 1919, WILL BE PLEASANT MEMORY FOR SERVICE MEN AND GUESTS

Patriotic Exercises are Followed by "Best Banquet" and "Biggest Dance;" "Bang-up Day" is the Way Veterans Describe It; Women's Auxiliary Serves Turkey Dinner to About 400 at Elks Club.

STIRRING ADDRESSES AT HIGH SCHOOL MEETING

Armistice Day, 1919, will long be a pleasant memory to service men of Connellsville and their relative and friends. It was "bang-up day," to quote the words of a happy returned soldier returning from the American Legion dance last night.

"I've heard two crackin' good addresses, had my picture taken three times, eaten the best dinner I ever had, and wound up the day with a dance. That's my idea of a wonderful time," was the way another fellow summed it up.

The day's events were:

3 P. M.—Patriotic exercises in the high school, attended by about 1,000 service men, G. A. R. members, Boy Scouts and the general public, features of which were stirring addresses by Col. Edward Martin of Waynesburg, commander of the 110th Regiment during its overseas campaigns; Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen of Uniontown, and Mayor John Duggan of Connellsville, and the presentation of an American flag by the Boy Scouts to Milton L. Bishop Post, The American Legion.

5 P. M.—Photographing of The American Legion members on the high school steps by Lewis Scolinick, a member of Bishop Post, for the purpose of preserving a phase of the day to posterity.

6 P. M.—Banquet for service men in the Elks club, an affair that, it is generally conceded, was the most successful ever held in Connellsville, served by the Women's Auxiliary of Milton L. Bishop Post.

8:30 P. M.—Dance in the evening at the armory at which the largest turnout of any affair of this kind ever held was reported.

It seems unfair to single any event out as being the best of the day, but the fact remains that the service men's banquet, served by the three members of the Women's auxiliary, was the most successful and the most enjoyable event of its kind ever conducted here. It was a "knockout" to the men for whom it was given, but they had heard rumors of a "feed" but they had no idea it was to be a "banquet," even though it had been advertised as such by the committee members who were just a bit afraid of the turnout of veterans, might not be commensurate with the quality and quantity of the feed. But when they hit it in the eye with turkey and all the fixings, it was too much for the former fighters. They couldn't do anything but eat until somebody proposed three cheers for the Women's auxiliary and then they threatened to take the roof off.

Something like 333 former service men sat down to the prettily decorated tables in the Elks' hall shortly after 6 o'clock, after Rev. Glennon had said the invocation. Those who weren't on time hustled up when a bugler came out on the Elks' porch and blew mess call. It seemed like old times to be called to "chow" by a bugle. But such "chow" the Army never knew.

Counting everybody, about 400 persons were served and there was plenty for all.

The banquet was a series of surprises. The meal itself was the feature, of course, but there was music with it. John Kiefer, who provided orchestras for all the Legion Armistice week events, insisted upon having his 10-piece jazz band perform while the service men were eating. Naturally, this made the affair all the more enjoyable. Then, too, there were the decorations, members of the Elks having taken it upon themselves to adorn the hall with flags and bunting. And after all had eaten, smokes were lit and a few toasts were offered, and cheers were given for the ladies, "nevertheless."

Talk about a pleasant time being had by all! It surely was.

The menu consisted of turkey, cranberry sauce, creamed peas, celery, biscuits, bread, salad, ice cream, cake and coffee. The large corps of waitresses served it quickly so that the turkey reached its destination steaming hot. It's hardly necessary to say that the cooking couldn't be surpassed for Connellsville women did it. And what heaping platters!

At a special table were Rev. E. A. Glennon, chaplain of Bishop Post, Mayor John Duggan, members of the G. A. R., draft board members, ministers and other invited guests. Further Glennon did what little "toastmastering" there was to do. He called on Captain E. Dunn and Col. J. J. Barnhart, of the G. A. R., both of whom expressed their delight at being present and said (The American Legion will fall heir to the tasks the G. A. R. has performed since the Civil War, and will perform them well).

During the progress of the meal, I. M. Snow, a member of the Legion, got out on the floor and proposed cheers for the auxiliary, which were heartily given. Father Glennon later called for more cheers, which were even more enthusiastic.

Nobody was quite normal during the evening, and there were amusing incidents. Somebody introduced Rev. Richardson and Secretary Underwood of the Y. M. C. A., though they have known each other for some years. Someone else presented Rev. Glennon to Commander Edgar Horner. They, too, have worked together in the Legion for some time. One of the guests inquired of a member of the committee if he had joined the Legion yet.

A delegation of about 75 Legion men from Lafayette Post of Uniontown attended the exercises and ban-

COLONEL MARTIN MAKES A PLEA FOR TRUE AMERICANISM

Commander of 110th Says There's No Room For Disloyalist Here Now.

"We don't want German-Americans or Italian-Americans, everybody in this country should be American!" That's the plea for the disloyalist here in America, so let's kick him out. Let's get rid of the influences that cause unrest.

Thus spoke Colonel Edward Martin, commander of the 110th Regiment during its active service in France, in a forceful patriotic address at The American Legion Armistice Day exercises in the high school yesterday.

"You men of the American Legion have come out strong for law and order," he continued, "and that is what this country needs."

Colonel Martin's address was a plea for 100 per cent Americanism such as The American Legion stands for. He urged upon service men to "get back to normal as quickly as possible," to take another job if the old one isn't to be had, to be loyal to employers and to aid other men in securing jobs—all to the end that the country may be in truth "the greatest country on earth."

The colonel expressed his belief that Congressmen, Mr. Clyde Kelly of Pittsburgh has the right idea in insisting that emigrants to this country be required to undergo a mental test before being admitted and to declare their intention to become citizens.

"Depot them if they don't take out their papers," he said.

Col. Martin took occasion to express his admiration for the fighting men of Western Pennsylvania, whom he has known through connection with the National Guard and the 110th Infantry during the war.

Referring to the soldier for whom the Legion post was named, he said "Milton L. Bishop was as fine a boy as ever wore the American uniform," and he went on to tell briefly the circumstances of Sgt. Bishop's death.

About 8,000 or 9,000 men were functioning from a little brigade headquarters, he said, and it was natural that the Germans should seek to locate it by airplane observation. The shell which struck it carried death to 17 officers and men and injury to many more, he stated, and all of the 12 towns from which the 110th regiment was recruited.

UNIONTOWN COMMENT ON THE BANQUET

John L. Becktel, former member of Company D, in The Herald: "The banquet was as well planned as the Meuse-Argonne drive."

Hugh Plenkken, secretary of Lafayette Post: "You have some auxiliary. We never attended anything like this affair."

O'Neill Kennedy, of The News Standard: "You can say anything, and it won't be too strong. The Uniontown delegation came back delighted."

quert. They could not say too much in praise of the way Armistice Day was celebrated here. "You have some auxiliary," one declared. Among them was Smith Hogsett, who has a couple of decorations for bravery, and Charles Long, who was wounded at the same time Milton Bishop was killed.

Lieut. John L. Robinson of Company D came late but he was quickly singled out and served.

Sheriff-elect Ira I. "Zeke" Shaw, who served in Company D, was also among those present. He said the affair was characteristic of Connellsville as he knew it.

Colonel Martin and Judge Van Swearingen were unable to stay for the banquet.

The committee which had charge of the Armistice Day events consisted of J. Montgomery Dilworth, Harry G. Mason, Lloyd McClelland, Carl T. Floto, William P. Sherman and Frank Sweeney.

Lewis Scolinick plans to present a copy of the group picture he took at the high school after the exercises to each member of Bishop Post. Another picture was taken for the Pittsburgh newspapers.

PRESENTATION OF FLAG TO POST IS PRETTY CEREMONY

A feature of Tuesday afternoon's Armistice Day exercises was the presentation of an American flag to Milton L. Bishop Post, The American Legion, by the Boy Scouts of Connellsville. The ceremony of presentation was an impressive one. At the conclusion of Col. Edward Martin's address, W. F. Underwood, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., addressed the audience on behalf of the Boy Scouts while the flag was brought on the stage by a color guard composed of Patrol Leader Ray Henry, Assistant Patrol Leader Charles Mitchell and Scribner Grant Clark, all of Headquarters Patrol.

At the same time J. J. Hughes, a Connellsville Marine, at present home from the Marine Barracks at Washington on a furlough, R. M. Holmes of Mount Pleasant, who served with Company C, 26th Infantry, First Division, overseas, and Carl T. Floto, a discharged sailor, appeared on the opposite side of the stage as representatives of the three arms of the service.

At the conclusion of Mr. Underwood's address, the orchestra struck up "The Star Spangled Banner," the flag was placed in Commander Horner's hands, the service men came to salute and the entire house rose. It was an impressive moment.

Commander Horner neatly expressed the appreciation of the Post for the emblem and paid tribute to the part the Scouts have played in all war activities. The ceremony closed with the playing of "America" by the orchestra.

ARMISTICE DAY OBSERVANCE NOT ON DANCE PROGRAM

There was an observance of Armistice Day yesterday, not scheduled on the program, which was as fitting as it was impressive and inspiring.

When the whistle sounded the Armistice Hour—11 minutes of 11 o'clock—the ladies of the banquet committee who were engaged at the Elks Home in preparing for the event of the evening, suspended their work at the request of Mr. G. L. C. Richardson and assembled in the banquet hall. Calling attention to the significance of the hour, Mrs. Richardson suggested that a hymn be sung, "Nearer My God to Thee" was the choice following the singing of which Mrs. Richardson offered a prayer that was beautifully worded and expressive in sentiment.

The temporary order of the Central Coal committee, issued on November 8, setting aside all restrictions on the delivery of coal to consignees within the limitation of the first five priorities has been cancelled today. This new order means that beginning at once the same method of procedure in securing bituminous coal as was originally set forth in the plan established by the Fuel Administration will be restored.

"Applications for coal for commercial use will again have to be made to the freight agent of the railroad which will make the delivery. This will then be passed on to the local railroad committee and if approved it will go to the regional coal committee for final authorization. Coal for inland and coastwise shipping will again have to be secured through the commissioners of the tidewater coal exchanges who are cooperating with the regional and railroad committees and who act as agents for the railroads making the deliveries. This will in no wise work a hardship on any user of bituminous coal. The various committees have been fully organized and are prepared to give all cases immediate attention. Considerable assistance can be rendered these committees, however, and much time can be saved in the investigations which they are required to make of all applications, if care is exercised in filling out the application blank so that all the detailed information requested and given is full."

By the new arrangement the drug clerks and their employees who are now tied down to business every Sunday will have three days off each month. At the same time the public will be able to secure drugs and medicines at any time during Sunday instead of during certain hours of the morning and evening. It will be necessary in the case of "one-day" persons, ending the supply of drugs, to order the supply of drugs to be delivered on Saturday. One drugist will not attempt to re-fill a prescription of another on Sunday, as to new business it is left to the buyer to determine who shall be patronized of the two that are open each Sunday.

Joining in the movement are the Connellsville Drug company, C. Roy Hetzel, A. A. Clarke, Bluel Drug company, Laughrey Drug company, Collins' drug store, R. P. Lytle and H. O. Keagy. The following schedule was arranged, beginning next Sunday: November 16—Connellsville Drug company and A. A. Clarke; November 23—Bluel Drug company and Collins' drug store; November 30—C. Roy Hetzel and H. O. Keagy; December 7—Laughrey Drug company and R. P. Lytle.

When the above schedule is completed the groups will start over again.

600 ATTEND LEGION DANCE; MEMBERSHIP IN POST RUN UP TO 514

Armory Thronged For Concluding Event of Armistice Day; Attendance Exceeded Record.

About 600 persons attended the Armistice Day dance, conducted by Bishop Post, The American Legion, in the armory last night. In fact, the attendance is declared to have exceeded that of any other dance ever held here. Although the floor was a trifle crowded for dancing, it proved to be a mighty enjoyable affair.

Almost all of the service men who attended the banquet went to the dance, the only event of the day for which a charge was made. Ladies were admitted free and they were present in sufficient numbers to assure no lack of dancing partners for the men. Kiefer's 10-piece orchestra played its best. Director John Kiefer provided music for all the Armistice Day affairs, was the person with his best musicians and nothing but praise was heard for the music. The decorations were as appetizing as pretty, flags and bunting being used.

The Legion membership drive ended at midnight at the dance, a desk at which service men could enroll being operated. A large number signed up and the roll reached 514 by 12 o'clock. This is said to be the largest membership in the county, exceeding even that of Uniontown post. An enrollment of 514 in a city of 15,000 is said to be almost a record for the state, if not for the whole country.

Harry Percy was in charge of the membership campaign, he having officiated for a week at the booth on Armistice corner. He was assisted by I. M. Snow, Lewis Scolinick, W. H. May and other members.

Struck by Negro on CAR, MRS. HELLEN SUES WEST PENN FOR $10,000

Suffered Permanent Injuries, She Claims; Avers Crew Should Have Protected Her.

Mrs. Frank Hellen entered suit on Monday in the United States District Court to recover $10,000 damages from the West Penn Railways company for alleged permanent injuries said to have been received on July 19th last.

Mrs. Hellen asserts that while returning home from Uniontown on a West Penn car an argument between a white man and a negro caused a fight, in which she received serious injuries. She charges the crew of the car with neglect in not giving the passengers protection.

Mrs. Hellen was returning from Uniontown where she had attended the soldiers' home-coming celebration. A colored man who took up the fight, in attempting to strike a white man, struck Mrs. Hellen instead, injuring her spine.

FORMER SERVICE MEN RAID "COMMUNIST" HEADQUARTERS; GET RED FLAGS AND PAPERS

Place is Wrecked in Systematic Manner Before Police Arrive on Scene.

By Associated Press.

OAKLAND, Cal., Nov. 12.—A crowd of citizens entered the headquarters of the Communist Labor party in Loring hall early today and wrecked the interior of the place. Large quantities of radical literature, red flags and furniture were burned in the street by the mob.

The mob was said to have consisted of 400 former service men.

The office of the "World," a Socialist organ, situated in the building, also was wrecked.

The Communist Labor party is said to be a new radical organization here. The wrecking of the headquarters was carried out in methodical fashion and with such swiftness that by the time the police arrived on the scene the crowd had dispersed and none could be identified as having been connected with the raid.

DRUG STORES ENTER INTO AGREEMENT FOR SERVICE ON SUNDAYS

Eight Leading Firms Divided Into Groups, Two of Which Will Be Open; Others to Close.

Under an agreement effected Tuesday by eight of the leading druggists of the city, Sunday service will be limited to two stores of the number entering into the agreement. The two stores designated each Sunday will be open for business as on week days. The others will be closed all day. "The druggists are going to strike for the good of their employees," remarked one.

By the new arrangement the drug clerks and their employees who are now tied down to business every Sunday will have three days off each month. At the same time the public will be able to secure drugs and medicines at any time during Sunday instead of during certain hours of the morning and evening. It will be necessary in the case of "one-day" persons, ending the supply of drugs, to order the supply of drugs to be delivered on Saturday. 19 I. W. W. MEMBERS NABBED FOR FIRING ON ARMISTICE DAY PARADE

Arrests Follow Killing of Four American Legion Men and Lynching of Radical.

By Associated Press.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Nov. 12.—Nineteen alleged Industrial Workers of the World are in jail here today. The men were rounded up yesterday and last night after the firing on the Armistice Day parade which resulted in the deaths of four members of the American Legion and the lynching of an I. W. W. member. There was no disorder here this morning.

Later the national guardsmen went on patrol in many parts of the city. At 8:30 they were posted on the main streets and were guarding all the roads leading into Centralia.

The secretary of the union, Bill Smith, was lynched by unidentified men and his body riddled with bullets last night.

Smith's body, which was hanging from a bridge after two undertakers refused to handle it, was said the rope had been cut, allowing the corpse to drop into the river.

Handbills were posted by Centralia authorities in all parts of the city asking residents to report knowledge of the shooting or of any I. W. W. they may have. A drive has been launched to clear the I. W. W. from Centralia. It was said, and former service men who came here in the night from neighboring towns are to be used in the work.

Improvement of South Side Street Unlikely Before Spring.

If slag for the base arrives Contractor Alfred DePolo will this week complete the paving of Chestnut street. A part of the paving has been laid.

It is considered improbable that Davidson avenue will be improved this fall. Contractor Malachi Duggan, who was awarded this piece of work, has been engaged in Robbins street which is about completed. It is said only the section of Davidson between Pittsburgh street and Race street will be attempted before next spring. The remainder of the street is in fairly good condition, however. Superintendent B. L. Berg of the street department, said this afternoon.

Home is Sold.

The A. E. Wagoner agency has sold Mrs. Charlotte Bowden's home on Poplar street to Martin Roysky, who will move in some time this month.

KANAWHA MINERS OF W. VA. FAIL TO START WORK TODAY

Only Four of 200 Mines in the District Resume and These With Small Forces.

ARMS SEIZED BY SHERIFF

Nine Rifles and 1,000 Rounds of Ammunition Confiscated at Dawes, a Mining Town in Cabin Creek Region on the Order of Governor Cornwell.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 12.—Kanawha coal field miners did not obey the order of their leaders and return to work today. Only four of the 200 mines in the district began work and these with comparatively small forces.

This was the substance of an announcement by D. C. Kennedy, secretary of the Kanawha Coal Operators' association, after he had gone over his morning reports.

"Mine superintendents report to me that the men are showing no disposition to return to work," said Mr. Kennedy. "One hundred men at the Shewsbury mine voted last night to go to work today but not one appeared at the appointed time. At the Raymond City mine only 14 of a normal force of 800 were on hand. Such reports are not at all encouraging. Not a man reported at Booneville, Canabon, Long Acre or Powellton, the most important mines in the district. A few appeared at two mines on Cabin Creek."

Mr. Kennedy appealed to the headquarters of the United Mine Workers to get the men back to work at the earliest possible moment.

Union leaders replied they were having difficulty in convincing the men they were not being "tricked" and the order was authentic but expressed the opinion the miner would soon return.

"It may be necessary to produce copies of the official order issued in Indianapolis," said Fred Mooney, district secretary.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 12.—Reports from all mining districts in Ohio today were that none of the 40,000 had returned to work. It was explained that no official notification of the recall of the strike order had yet been received by the localities and the men would not return until officially notified.

Copies of the order have been received at state headquarters and are being sent to locals today.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 12.—Deputy sheriffs, acting on an executive warrant issued by Governor Cornwell, today seized a quantity of arms and ammunition in the express office at Dawes, a mining village in the Cabin Creek district.

The arms were consigned to a miner living in Dawes and were received at the express office yesterday. Nine rifles and 1,000 rounds of ammunition made up the shipment, it was announced at Governor Cornwell's office.

The rifles, which were taken to the governor's office, proved upon examination by Colonel W. F. Harrell, commanding the federal troops here, to be regulation army pattern and the steel-jacketed bullet in the ammunition cases were the type used in regulation rifles and machine guns.

Some time ago Governor Cornwell received information that arms were being shipped in to the state and suspected points were watched. When the cases were located at Dawes the governor issued a warrant under power given to him by the war emergency act, the first time such a warrant has been issued.

THEIR ORIGINAL DEMANDS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 12.—Original demands of a 60 per cent increase in wages, a six-hour day and a five-day week will be presented to operators by mine workers in the joint scale conference called for Friday in Washington at the instance of Secretary of Labor Wilson, according to Frank Farrington, chairman of the miners' scale committee, who came here today enroute to the national capital.

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind incombustible ashes, so the food and drink, taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and poisonous-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right, must begin to take inside baths. Before breakfast each morning drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the bowels the previous day's poisons and toxins, and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.—Adv.

It was that place she went a week ago to the Longmeyer home for what was to be a short visit. Mrs. Long lived in Connelville for upwards of 25 years. She was born near Athens, Ohio, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Webb. Her mother died when Mrs. Long was quite young and her father lived until just a few years ago, dying at the age of 96. Soon after her marriage Mrs. Long came to Connelville and this was her home until after the death of her husband in 1892. Three children were born to the union. All are living. They are, Charles B. Long and Mrs. F. G. Banner of Pittsburg and Howard C. Long of Hammond, Ind. The sons were here when the mother died. Mrs. Banner recently underwent an operation for appendicitis and was not able to come. Mrs. Long leaves also two brothers, Jacob and Barrack Webb, Springfield, Ill., and a sister, Mrs. Lewis Robinson of Wellsville, Ohio. The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church. Samuel R. Long, the husband of Mrs. Long, was elected burgess of Connelville in 1892 but died before he assumed the office. He was once a candidate for sheriff on the Democratic ticket. For 10 years he was employed by the late John D. Frisbee, operating a wagon in the rural sections, taking out merchandise and bringing back butter, eggs and farm products.

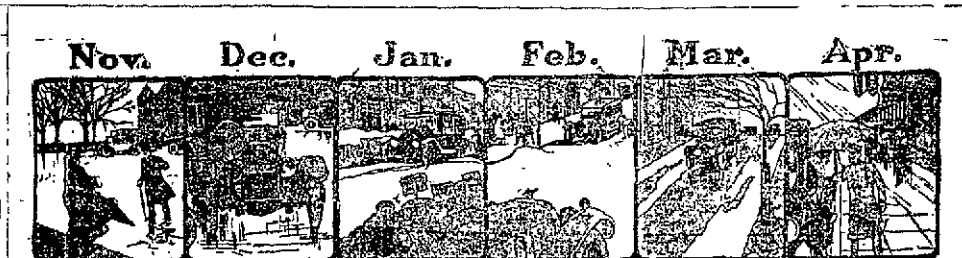

The body was removed to Funeral Director J. E. Sims' parlors and then to the home of Mrs. J. M. Herpich, East Crawford avenue, where the funeral service will be held Friday. Mrs. Herpich was a cousin.

11 HENS LAY 221 EGGS A MONTH

Mrs. Young Almost Gave Up Raising Chickens. Then She Tried This Plan.

"When I accepted your offer and tried Don Sung, I had been getting 1 or 2 eggs every other day. The next month, using 50 cents' worth of Don Sung, my 11 hens laid 221 eggs. I almost gave up raising chickens, but now I have decided to raise as many as I can."—Mrs. P. C. Young, Bellefonte, Pa.

Feed is too expensive to waste on idle hens. You can easily start your hens laying and keep them laying, even in coldest winter. To prove it, all you need do is accept our offer, as Mrs. Young did.

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her stronger and more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer or send 50 cents for a package by mail prepaid. Durrell-Dugger Co., 220 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.—Adv.

THE FIRST ARMISTICE DAY CELEBRATION.

The remarkable success of the first celebration of the anniversary of Armistice Day establishes no fact more clearly than that this event is going to become one of the most popular of our public occasions.

With the deep impressions resulting from the memorial services of Sunday and the exercises of yesterday afternoon, the wonderful revival of the spirit of comradeship displayed by the men, the hearty and willing cooperation of the citizens, and the magnificent work of the Mothers, Nurses, Sisters and friends of "service" men,
the occasion was one to be long remembered.

But more than that it has served to once more bring the people of the community together with a self-forgetfulness of all lines of division of religious or political faith or social standing and has cemented them more firmly as a group of patriotic and loyal citizens of the great American public. There has been a renewal of the sense of constancy to the principles for which our boys went overseas to fight. There has been given proof of the determination of the people to stand with the boys here at home just as resolutely as they stood behind them while they were on the fighting fronts in Europe.

These things were so evidenced by the first celebration of Armistice Day that the recurrence of the date is certainly to be a memorable event in Connellsville and that in the intervening periods an increasingly sturdy Americanism will be maintained and more emphatic recognition given to the loyalty and patriotism of those entitled to have a part in it.

PUBLIC BEGINNING TO LOOSE
RATTLING.

It would have added greatly to the prestige of the miners' cause had the executive officers accepted the "mandate" of the federal court to call off the strike in a different spirit from that shown by them.

Declaring that they were yielding unwillingly to a superior power rather than rendering ready obedience to authority. That being the case the action taken so reluctantly was quite in accord with the refusal to comply with the President's request to annul the strike-order before it became effective and the later inclination to disregard the injunction issued by the government's authority.

This attitude, which was given expression in the final compliance with the mandatory order to call off the strike is for the most part due to the obstinacy of strike leaders in maintaining the action of the government as a denial of the right to strike. That has never been the position of the government and is not now its position. The action of the government was based solely upon the fact that the strike was a violation of the Leves Act controlling fuel and food and therefore illegal as the President warned the leaders would be the construction placed upon the act's inaugurating a strike.

From that point of view the public has formed its opinion of the matter and its sympathies have quite naturally and quite properly been in favor of an observance of law and respect of authority instead of opposition or disregard of both such as the strike leaders have manifested.

Having finally acquiesced in the demands of the government the only question between the miners and the government has been settled. The supreme authority of the government and law has been made to triumph but the issue between the miners and the operators which led up to the strike remains to be settled. Until the treaty of peace is ratified and the formal proclamation of the peace declaring the war at an end has been published the strike cannot be legally renewed.

The miners having already indicated their willingness to re-enter a view conference with the operators with a view to adjusting their differences, there is now every opportunity provided for reaching a settlement before the time comes when the force of the courts must be used and the right to strike will again become effective.

If such negotiations are entered upon in the proper spirit and without either side assuming a position of unalterable insistence then contentions shall alone prevail, a satisfactory settlement ought to be soon reached. It is in this temper that the public demands the matter be approached and determined. The time has come when the public which in the last analysis pays all the bills of "halfhearted industrial progress" must be given consideration at the hands of both capital and labor. The people are heartily sick and tired of strikes and lockouts. Wearied of both and the contentions to which they give rise the people are fast losing all inclination to make discrimination between the parties to these disturbing factors and are placing the responsibility for continued unrest upon both.

It is time for everybody to go to work, stay on the job and give the country a chance to resume the normal course in business and industry.
Whoever intervenes to prevent or delay such a recovery must not complain if they are classed with the bolshe-vists and other radicals.

At the Theatres

THE PARAMOUNT.

"EMBARRASSMENT OF RICHES," a splendid production featuring Lillian Walker, the popular star, is today's leading attraction.

An unexpected legacy of a half million transforms, over night, "Lizzie Holt," factory girl, into "Elizabeth Holt," heiress. Elizabeth quickly tries of the thin atmosphere of the social life into which she has been plunged, and goes to a settlement of which she has heard. There she meets John Russell whose sole use for riches is to relieve the embarrassment of the poor. Representing herself as Miss Phelps, her own secretary, Elizabeth gains the confidence of Russell to the extent that she is able to arrange to visit the settlement frequently and assist in the work without incurring personally the resentment which Russell manifests toward the rich.

In the meantime Russell declares war upon Ted Phelan, ward boss and owner of several gambling houses in the district. Determined to "get" Russell, Phelan arranges with a henchman, Jim Connors that Connors, Miss Partridge shall enter the settlement as secretary to Russell and contrive to alter the accounts in such a manner that it will reflect upon Russell. Miss Partridge, fearing her own implication in the plots against Russell, resigns. Elizabeth sees in Miss Partridge's withdrawal from the settlement an opportunity to take her place, and so applies for the position. The intimate association awakens Russell to his love for her and believing her to be a poor girl, he proposes to her.

THE SOISSON.

"JINX"—With Mabel Normand the Goldenwyn star, in the leading role, is being presented today. The plot concerns an orphaned circus waif known as the Jinx, because she has supposedly brought bad luck to the traveling troupe. Her forlorn plight, her ignorance and awkwardness, and her kindly heart plunge the Jinx into situations which are highly ludicrous and full of novel comedy.

When the circus folk strike and desert the almost bankrupt show, the Jinx because she feels responsible for the catastrophe, tries to keep the performance going by taking the place of the serpent dancer. This is the final calamity as the Jinx cannot dance. She is pursued by an irate manager and finds refuge in an orphan's home, where her cup of happiness is filled.

"BEST MEDICINE FOR WOMEN"

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Ohio Woman.

Portsmouth, Ohio—"I suffered from irregularities, pains in my side and was so weak at times I could hardly get around to do my work, and as I had four in my family and three boarders it made it very hard for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. I took it and it has restored my health. It is certainly the best medicine for woman's ailments I ever saw."—Mrs. SARA SAAR, R. No. 1, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Mrs. Shaw proved the merit of this medicine and wrote this letter in order that other suffering women may find relief as she did.

Women who are suffering as she was should not drag along from day to day without giving this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice in regard to such ailments write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its forty years experience is at your service.

PERFORATED LEGS. NO BAR ON GRIDIRON

Wesley Brocker, in spite of the fact that he had both legs perforated with German bullets is back at Harvard. Brocker, who fell from Minnesota served as an officer of the First division and after his discharge from the hospital upon recovery from his wounds he played with the First division's football team on the Rhine. In 1912 he was crack lineman of the Harvard freshman squad and he expects to come back just as strong as ever this season.

GOURAGE WAS NEEDED

In baseball reminiscences in the Yale University Graphic, Frank William Lyon Phelps speaks of the catchers of the '70's who used to stand at the plate without mask, shinguard, chest pad or glove. Silver Flint of the Chicago nine, he says was in a railway accident and fortunately escaped without a scratch.

He was standing by the edge of the track when a surgeon came and, looking at his hands, said: "My poor man, you'll have to have those fingers amputated." Flint of course laughed. His gaunt and twisted fingers were the natural result of years behind the bat without protective armor.

SCHUPP WOULD RETURN TO GIANTS IN SPRING

Frequently, minor bleaches disappear—evens out. Itching usually stops instantly. Zemo is a safe, antiseptic liquid, clean, easy to use and dependable. It costs only 35c; an extra large bottle, $1.00. It will not stain, is not greasy or sticky and is positively safe for tender, sensitive skins.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

URGES PEOPLE TO FIGHT CATARRH WITH SIMPLE HOME MADE REMEDY

Can Make Pint at Home and Costs Little, Says Leading Druggist of Covington, Ky., Who Has Made Special Study of Catarrh.

Says: Inflamed Nostrils Invite Influenza

People who say that catarrh is a disease not to be taken seriously are harshly rebuked by a Kentucky druggist who has for years been much interested in the growth of this loathsome, yet altogether too common disease.

He claims that the sore, tender, inflamed membrane of the nostrils and throat is a prolific breeding ground for germs—not only the germs of influenza, but many other kinds as well.

If people would only stop experimenting for two weeks and try a simple remedy made of Mentholized Arzene mixed with enough boiled water to make a full pint, half of the catarrh in this country would be abolished. It's really no joke for people who don't know about this simple recipe to be constantly sniffing and snuffing, blowing and hawking. When all these obnoxious symptoms as well as the foul discharge can be made to disappear in a few days.

Ask for three quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arzene—that's all you need and after you have mixed it with enough boiled water to make a pint, gargle the throat twice daily and sniff or spray some up the nostrils, as directed.

The tender nostrils will soon lose their soreness, heal up, and be clean and healthy.

Important Reminder: Just as soon as anyone in the family gets a cold in the head, check it at once with this same medicine.

THE COW PUNCHER

Poems"

Then he laughed. Hollow and empty it sounded in the night air, but it was a laugh, and it saved his spirit. "Why, you fool," he chuckled, "you came to town for to learn something, didn't you? Well, you're learnin'! Sixty dollars a throw. Education comes high, don't it? But you shouldn't kick. He didn't coax you in, an' gave you every chance to back away. You butted in and got stung. Perhaps you've learned something worth sixty dollars."

In his innocence of the ways of the game it never occurred to him that the friendly stranger who had showed him how to play it was a friend of the sharper, and probably at this moment they were dividing his sixty dollars—the price of old Slop-eye—between them.

Early next morning he was awake and astir. The recollection of his loss sent a sudden pang through his morning spirits, but he tried to close his mind to it.

"No use worryin' over that," he said, jingling the few coins that now represented his wealth. "That's over and gone. I traded sixty dollars for my first lesson. Maybe it was a bad trade, but anyway I ain't goin' to squeal." He whistled as he finished dressing, ate his breakfast cheerfully, and set out in search of employment.

Almost the first person he met was the stranger who had schooled him in the gambling game the night before. There was something attractive about his personality; something which invited friendship and even confidence, and yet beneath these emotions Dave felt a sense of distrust, as though part of his nature rebelled against the acquaintance.

"That was the rottenest luck you had last night," the stranger was saying. "I never saw the heat of it. I was hope' you'd stay and raise him next time, you might have got your money back that way."

"Oh, I don't mind the money!" said Dave, cheerfully. "I don't want it back. In fact, I figure it was pretty well spent."

"Lots more where it came from, eh?" laughed the other. "You're from the ranches, I see, and I suppose the price of a steer or two doesn't worry you a hair's worth."

"From is right," Dave replied. "I'm from them, an' I ain't goin' back. As for money—well, I spent my last nickel for breakfast, so I've got to line up a job before noon."

The stranger extended his hand. "Shake," he said. "I like you. You're no squealer, anyway. My name is Conward. Yours?"

Dave told his name and shook hands. Conward offered his cigarette box, and the two smoked for a few moments in silence.

"What kind of a job do you want?" Conward asked at length.

"Any kind that pays a wage," said Dave.

"I know the fellow that runs an employment agency down here," Conward answered. "Let's go down. Perhaps I can put you in right."

Conward spoke to the manager of the employment agency and introduced Dave.

"Nothing very choice on tap today," said the employment man. "You can handle horses, I suppose?"

"I guess I can," said Dave. "Some."

"I can place you delivering coal. Thirty dollars a month, and you board with the boss."

"I'll take it," said Dave.

The boss proved to be one Thomas McFord. He owned half a dozen teams and was engaged in the carriage business, specializing on coal. He was a man of big frame, big head, and a vocabulary appropriate to the purposes to which he applied it. Among his other possessions were a wife, numerous children and a house and barn. In which he boarded his beasts of burden, including in the barn his horses, his men and his wife, in the order of their valuation. The children were a by-product, valueless until such time as they also would be able to work.

Dave's duties were simple enough. He had to drive a wagon to a coal yard, where a very superior young man, with a collar, would express surprise that he had been so long gone, and tell him to back in under chute number so-and-so. It appeared to be always a matter of great distress to this young man that Dave did not know which chute to back under until he was told. Having backed into position a door was opened. There was a fiction that the coal in the bin should then run into the wagon box, but as Dave at once discovered this was merely a fiction. Aside from a few accommodating lumps near the door the coal had to be shoveled. Then Dave had to drive to an address that was given him, shovel the coal down a chute located in the most inaccessible position, the premises afforded, and return to the coal yard where the young man with the collar would facetiously inquire whether Mrs. Blank

This Simple Home Treatment Has Stood The Test of Time.

Every fall and winter for more than twenty years, thousands of people have made it a daily practice to breathe the air of Hyomel and so keep themselves free from Catarrh, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, and Influenza. This is certain and you should try it. If you will breathe Hyomel daily, as directed, it will free you and keep you free from all these troubles or it won't cost you a cent.

had invited him in to afternoon tea, or if he had been waiting for a change in the weather.

His work and supper were over by seven o'clock each evening, and now was the opportunity for him to begin the schooling for which he had left the ranch. But he developed a sudden disinclination to make the start; he was tired in the evening, and he found it much more to his liking to stroll downtown, smoke cigars on the street corners, or engage in an occasional game of pool. In this way the weeks went by, and when his month with the firm was up he had neglected to find another position, so he continued where he was. He was being gradually and unconsciously submerged in an inertia which, however much it might hate its present surroundings, had not the spirit to seek a more favorable environment. So the fall and winter drifted along; Dave had made few acquaintances and no friends, if we except Conward, whom he frequently met in the pool-rooms and for whom he had developed a sort of attachment.

One Saturday evening, as Dave was on his way to their accustomed resort, he fell in with Conward on the street. "Hello, old man!" said Conward cheerily. "I was just looking for you. Got two tickets for the show tonight. Some swell dames in the chorus. Come along. There'll be dollars."

There were two theaters in the town, one of which played to the better-class residents. In it anything of a risqué nature had to be presented with certain trimmings which allowed it to be classed as "art," but in the other house no such restrictions existed. It was to the latter that Conward led. Dave had been there before, in the cheap upper gallery, but Conward's tickets admitted to the best seats in the house.

WOMEN NEED SWAMP-ROOT

Thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are often times symptoms of kidney trouble. Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Get a medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing mention the Connellsville Courier.—Adv.
